

DEPARTMENT OF ARCHEOLOGY, CONSERVATION AND HISTORY 2013 I

Take-home examination

History, May 13th-16th

HIS4160 Innovation and technological change from antiquity to our times

Technology and economic growth.

Exam information

3-days take-home examination: The students have three days to write an assignment. The length of the exam paper should be 6-10 standard pages (1 page = 2300 characters without spacing). The literature list and footnotes will not be included when the length of the exam paper is evaluated. Your exam paper must have a front page with the following information: Your candidate number (not your name), the course code, the exam assignment, department and semester.

The exam is to be submitted in Fronter. The files must be submitted in .pdf-format and we stress that the students are responsible for making sure that the files are readable. If you need assistance in converting your file to .pdf, we recommend that you follow these instructions. The file must be named with your candidate number (not your name) and the course code. You will find your candidate number on StudentWeb.

In the process of uploading the file containing your exam in Fronter, you will be asked to confirm that the work you are submitting is your own and that you are aware of the University of Oslo's policy concerning academic integrity and cheating. To qualify for uploading you must answer these questions affirmatively.

The grades will be published June 11th in StudentWeb. The candidates can ask for an explanation for the grade they have been given by sending a request to historie-student@iakh.uio.no within a week after the grades have been published. In the request the candidate's email adresse, phone number and candidate number must be stated.