

FIL 4390 Environmental philosophy

Mandatory assignment, spring semester 2018

Submission deadline: April 3d by 02:00 pm in Fronter:

https://www.hf.uio.no/ifikk/english/studies/resources/submitting/submitting_fronter.html

The paper should be of approximately 4-5 pages à 2300 characters. Remember to cite and to use all sources correctly.

Choose one of the following three assignments:

1. What is the core disagreement between Callicott and Rolston, and how do you assess their arguments?
2. Do you think that a viable environmental ethics needs to reject anthropocentrism?
3. How relevant – and if so, problematic – do you find the legacy of Cartesian mind/matter dualism in current environmental philosophy?
