

To be able to apply for housing for you, you need to fill in this form:

Name (as written in passport)
Sex
Date of birth
Nationality
Email address
Telephone number (country code + number)
Will spouse/partner/children accompany you?
If relevant: name of spouse/partner
If relevant: name and date of birth of children
If relevant: name and date of birth of other dependants
Requested contract period (start and end-date)
Requested type of housing	Read the information below the table
1. Priority
2. Priority
3. Priority
Academic contact person
Date of arrival
How are you affiliated to UiO (employee or guest researcher).
What is your professional title? (PhD, Postdoc, Researcher, Professor etc)
Who is paying for your accommodation? (you? Your department at UiO? Others?)

University of Oslo may offer these 2 types of housing:

- 1) Apartment owned by UiO: Fully equipped apartments for 2- 12 months. Studio apartments, 1-bedroom apartments and 2-bedroom apartment (for families only). Find more information here: <http://www.uio.no/english/about/jobs/ismo/before-arrival/accommodation/uio/apartment/index.html>

- 2) SiO Housing (Student housing) for young, single researchers for 2-12 months. Furnished rooms with shared kitchen and bathroom with ordinary students. Rooms are equipped with basic furniture's (bed with mattress, desk, desk chair, closet etc.). Tenant must bring/buy everything else including kitchenware's. Check prizes at www.sio.no but note that you need to add 20% to the prices given on their website. No need to specify kind of housing at SiO, as that will come at a later stage.

When filling the form, you write the type of accommodation you prefer in your prioritized succession.

Example:

1. 1-bedroom apartment
2. Studio apartment
3. SiO Housing

Questions? Don't hesitate to contact us at researcher-housing@admin.uio.no