Part 2: Rights and Obligations (to be filled out by student and main supervisor)

We have read and agreed to the following rights and obligations:

- The main supervisor and the student are to agree upon a time plan and a work plan. The first suggestions to these plans are to be presented by the student.
- Each student is allotted 25 hours supervision, and this also includes the time taken by supervisor to read the material.

The student must:

- Be well prepared for meetings with the supervisor
- Follow the scheduled plan and keep the supervisor orientated about one's progress on a regular basis.
- Give notice if you are not able to attend a scheduled meeting.
- Inform the Head of Office/Executive officer if cooperation problems should arise.
- Conduct oneself according to existing regulations at UiO.

The main supervisor must:

- Conduct oneself according to the Ethical guidelines for supervisors at the University of Oslo.
- Set up a meeting with the student within 3 weeks after being appointed as supervisor.
- Be well prepared for meetings with the student.
- Discuss and assess the student's use of methods, the carrying out of the agreed plan and the student's results.
- Keep orientated about the student's progress through meetings and evaluate the progression in relation to the scheduled plan.
- Inform the student about how the supervision is planned.
- Give notice if you are not able to attend a scheduled meeting.
