

SENKU SEMINAR SERIES 2023

SPEAKERS: local and international colleagues

TOPICS: collaborative research, different forms of heritage repatriation, decolonizing museum practices, Indigenous curation, and many more

WHERE: St. Olavs gate 29

WHEN: usually once a month on Thursdays from 14:00 to 15:45

FORMAT: 45+45

More info: khm.uio.no/english/research/events/senku-seminars

Contact: anna.mossolova@khm.uio.no

SPRING SEMESTER 2023

February 23

Anette Nymann Lindhom & Arne Aleksej Perminow

Kulturhistorisk museum, Oslo

Ørjan Olsen, a Norwegian Headhunter in the 'Land of Adventures'.

Why and how Māori Ancestral remains came to be in the Schreiner Collection and their significance in contemporary Polynesia

March 9

Eva-kristiina Nylander

Ethnologisches Museum, Berlin

Ládjogahpir a rematriašuvdna — Máttaráhkuid gábagahpir/

The repatriation of Ládjogahpir — the Foremothers' Hat of Pride

April 13

Khadija von Zinnenburg Carroll

Central European University, Vienna

REPATRIATES: Artistic Research in Museums and Communities in the process of Repatriation from Europe

June 1

Neil Curtis

University of Aberdeen, Scotland

Returning colonial loot: The story of a Benin Bronze

AUTUMN SEMESTER 2023

September 21

Lars Christian Risan

(Kulturhistorisk museum, Norway)

A post-humanist re-encounter with the wolf children of Midnapore

September 28

Batsaikhan Ookhnoi

(Mongolian Academy of Sciences, Mongolia)

Rethinking Mongolian History: The Mongolian National Revolution of 1911 and The Last Emperor of Mongolia

October 12

Sarah Yu (Nyamba Buru Yawuru, Australia)

Maria Dahlström (Världskulturmuseet, Sweden)

Carsten Wergin (Heidelberg University, Germany)

Gro Ween (Kulturhistorisk museum, Norway):

Engaging Australian Kimberley collections in European museums

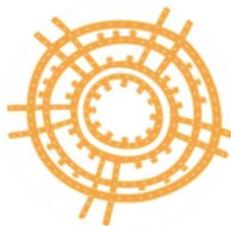

November 30

Cunera Buijs & Erna Lilje

(Research Center for Material Culture, Netherlands)

Indigenous knowledge curation and collaborative exhibit making at Nationaal Museum van Wereldculturen

December 7 or 14 (tbs)

Greenland National Museum and Archives

Nunatta Katersugaasivia Allagaateqarfialu

UiO : Kulturhistorisk museum