

Regimes of Temporality - Final conference program - version of 06.06.13
University of Oslo, June 5-7, 2013.

Wednesday June 5

Venue: Georg Sverdrup's Building, Blindern

10:30 11:00 Registration & coffee

		Auditorium 2
11:00	12:15	Plenary session 1
		Opening of the Conference by Einar Lie , Vice Dean for Research, Faculty of Humanities Welcome by Helge Jordheim , Head of KULTRANS
		Plenary keynote: Geoffrey C. Bowker : The times they are a-changin'

12:15 13:15 Lunch

		Parallel sessions
		Auditorium 2	Room 1	Room 2
13:15	15:15	Panel: Modern times and other times, I: Examining concepts Chair: Erling Sandmo	Panel: Temporalities of nature and culture, I Chair: Geoffrey Bowker	Panel: Futures Chair: Anders Ekström
		Panel keynote. Penny Harvey: Inauguration and the time of the infrastructural	Gro B. Ween: Salmon life cycles: Death and other purposes	Inger-Johanne Sand: Law, regimes of temporality, challenges of risk society
		Thomas Hylland Eriksen: Deep and shallow time in social change	Nuno Luís Madureira: Environmental time and the threat of fossil fuel depletion (XIX and early XX century)	Stefan Willer: Back to the future, forward to the past - how to travel through time
		Ingjerd Hoëm: Genealogical time meets audit culture	Kyrre Kverndokk: The bride of Frankenstorm. The rhetorics of hurricanes and the semiotics of weather extremes

15:15 15:30 Coffee break

15:30	17:30	Panel: Modern times and other times, I: Examining concepts (cont.) Chair: Erling Sandmo	Panel: Temporalities of nature and culture, I (cont.) Chair: Geoffrey Bowker	Panel: Standardisation Chair: Vidar Grøtta
		Panel keynote. Veronica Strang: On the matter of time	Kristin Asdal: Co-modification and technologies for timing	Henrik Sinding-Larsen: New levels of standardization as a precondition for speed and integration in cultural evolution
		Falko Schmieder: The temporalization of survival	Marisa Cohn: The multiple temporal embodiments of systems work in a long-lived system	Lars Kirkhusmo Pharo: Global and local temporal knowledge: The politics of time regimes in America
				Oili-Helena Ylijoki: Conflicting temporalities in project-based university research

17:30 End of day 1

Thursday June 6
Venue: Georg Sverdrup's Building, Blindern

		Parallel sessions
		Auditorium 2	Room 2	Room 3
08:30	10:30	Panel: Modern times and other times, II: Linearity Chair: Thomas Hylland Eriksen	Panel: Mediating time I: Synchronicities Chair: John Durham Peters	Panel: Temporalities of nature and culture, II Chair: Kyrre Kverndokk
		Aurogeeta Das: Old and new muggus : Contested chronological narratives in Indian art history	Panel keynote. Stephanie Marriott: Momentous news and the phenomenology of the live event	Michaela Ibrion & Mohammad Mokhtari: The intriguing temporality of earthquakes and narratives of seismic time
		Anirudh Deshpande: The world is not flat. The dream of linear progress and existential multiplicities of a "globalized" town in transition (1985-2012) - the case of Gurgaon (India)	Anne Danielsen: "Once Upon a Time Called Now" – the experience of time in groove-directed music	Sylvia Lysgård: The role of historical events and present experiences for visions of a renewable future
		Shahzad Bashir: The myth of an Islamic time: Rethinking the representation of muslim societies	Matthias Koch & Christian Köhler: Archaeological time: On "time" as epistemological category of current media histories

10:30 10:45 Coffee break

		Auditorium 2
10:45	11:45	Plenary session 2 Plenary keynote Lynn Hunt: Why time now?

11:45 12:45 Lunch

		Parallel sessions
		Auditorium 2	Room 2
12:45	14:45	Panel: Mediating time II: The event Chair: John Durham Peters	Panel: Synchronies and asynchronies Chair: Stefan Willer
		Panel keynote. Anders Ekström: Times of disaster imagery	Helge Jordheim: Temporal Regimes and the Work of Synchronization
		Katharina Niemeyer: Media, time and events or media-time-events	Einar Wigen: Synchronising history
		Espen Ytreberg: Media events before and after liveness	Georg P. Mueller: Revolutions of time in revolutionary times. On the de- and re-synchronisation of socio-political clocks

14:45 15:15 Coffee break

		Auditorium 1
15:15	16:30	Plenary session 3 Plenary keynote Bruno Latour: Kosmokoloss

19:30 Conference dinner at the Restaurant Olympen, Grønlandsleiret 15, Metro: Grønland

Friday June 7

Venue: Georg Sverdrup's Building, Blindern

		Parallel sessions
		Room 1	Room 2	Room 3
09:00	11:00	Panel: Bringing together present and past Chair: Staffan Ericson	Panel: Mediating time III: Politics of media technologies Chair: Stephanie Marriott	Panel: Progress Chair: Lucian Hölscher
		Theo Röhle: From stateless to staleness. Temporality, rankings and the canon	Tarik Sabry: The Arab revolutions: The aporia of time revisited	Ronald Aronson: Whatever Happened to Progress?
		Anna Soulsby: Time, memory and the construction of history in post-communist organisations	Anna Grigoryeva: It's all happening at once. Emergency temporality and media technologies in Moscow's protest movement Audun Solli: The politics of temporality in Venezuelan cinema	Anton Jansson: Progress into freedom. Political and religious temporalities in Staatslexikon by Rotteck and Welcker

11:00 11:15 Coffee break

		Auditorium 2
11:15	12:15	Plenary session 4 Plenary keynote: John Durham Peters: Cultural Techniques of Time-Keeping, especially from the sky

12:15 13:00 Lunch

		Parallel sessions
		Room 1	Room 2	Room 3
13:00	15:00	Panel: Political time Chair: Hilde Reinertsen	Panel: Time and historiography, I Chair: Stefan Willer	Panel: Temporalities of the everyday Chair: Veronica Strang
		Alessandra von Burg: Stochastic citizenship and time: Randomness through a history of movement	Panel keynote. Lucian Hölscher: Time gardens. Structures of temporality in modern historiography	Kinneret Lahad: What are you waiting for? In the end you will die alone! Waiting and the temporal experiences of single women
		Anna Friberg: The temporalization of democracy: The transformation from a political concept to an economic	Erling Sandmo: Heterotopia and heterochronia in Olaus Magnus Peter Tietze: Concepts of time. Historicism, historical semantics, and the plurality of historical times	Thorgeir Kolshus: Chronometry for eternity. A multitemporal approach to the virtues of punctuality in Melanesia Cicilie Fagerlid: Co-presence and the public place

15:00 15:15 Coffee break

		Room 1	Room 2
15:15	17:15	Panel: Development Chair: Penny Harvey	Panel: Time and historiography, II Chair: Falko Schmieder
		Hilde Reinertsen: Technologies of timing in development aid: A study of planning, monitoring, and evaluation documents from Norwegian energy aid projects, 1990-95	Staffan Ericson: Media and maelstroms. (McLuhan and Benjamin)
		Marie-Christine Boilard: International politics of development time. A perspective from the United Nations General Assembly	Stefan Helgesson: The writing of colonial time
		Ida Jahr: Academic disciplines as predicated on specific metaphorical constructions of time: Regimes of temporality in American Studies	Ulrike Kirchberger: Cultures of time in the Atlantic world, 1760-1830

17:15 End of conference