

ENG2168 GENERAL ASSESSMENT GUIDELINES

The learning outcomes for the course are as follows:

After completing the course, you will be able to

- explain the structure of English words
- account for the history of the English vocabulary
- reflect on the meaning of words and their meaning relations to other words
- describe how dictionaries are constructed and use them efficiently

The exam format is a three-day take-home exam, and in evaluating the exam papers, we take the following aspects into considerations:

- The questions are answered fully;
- The answers are relevant to the questions asked;
- The student has managed to apply theory to the examples used;
- Precise and correct definitions;
- Good and logical argumentation;
- Good language and writing skills;
- Linguistic and academic conventions have been followed;
- References to syllabus texts.
