

ENG2325 THE SHORT STORY IN ENGLISH: Assessment Guidelines

Essays will be marked holistically, with no specific percentage of marks for any one aspect. Instead, the marker will be making an overall judgement if the quality of the essay as a whole. Weaknesses in one area of the criteria may be compensated for by particular skill in another, and vice versa.

Good

- 1 Work at the highest level will assert an argument, through the use of a thesis statement which is argumentative (i.e. it could also be disputed), specific (it is not overly general or vague), and substantiated (there is some evidence to support it).
- 2 The argument is delivered through the use of a clear, logical essay structure. The student considers the flow of the argument from paragraph to paragraph and sustains the argument throughout. The various points made are all relevant to the topic and argument under consideration in the essay, and that relevance is made explicitly clear.
- 3 The essay engages in detailed analysis, considering the literary strategies that can be discerned in the texts considered, and relating these strategies to the essay's overall argument. The essay demonstrates detailed awareness of the critical contexts of the texts considered, especially those relating to the short story as a literary genre.
- 4 The essay is written in formal, idiomatic English of a high standard, with no mistakes of grammar or spelling. It adopts an objective, but persuasive academic tone which reinforces the argument that the student is making.

Average:

- 1 Includes an argument, which is for the most part sustained throughout.
- 2 The essay adopts a clear structure and the points made are relevant to the topic under consideration throughout.
- 3 The essay engages in detailed analysis, and demonstrates some knowledge of the critical contexts, especially those relating to the short story as a literary genre.
- 4 The essay is written for the most part in correct, idiomatic English, with only very minor mistakes of grammar and spelling.

Poor:

- 1 The student's argument is excessively general or lacks substantiating evidence.
- 2 The structure lacks logic, and the points made are occasionally irrelevant to the topic and argument under consideration.
- 3 The essay engages in some analysis, but has a slight tendency to simply repeat details of plot. The essay demonstrates some knowledge of the critical contexts, especially those relating to the short story as a literary genre.
- 4 There are errors in grammar and spelling, though these do not prevent understanding of the essay text. The language includes some unidiomatic expressions/sentences.

Unacceptable:

- 1 The essay lacks argument.

- 2 The structure is illogical and confusing. The points made lack relevance to the topic under consideration.
- 3 The essay lacks analysis, simply retelling the story. The essay demonstrates no knowledge of the critical contexts.
- 4 The essay is poorly written with numerous errors of grammar and spelling. The language includes many unidiomatic expressions/sentences.
