

JUS5503 - Human Rights and Counter-Terrorism: Striking a Balance? Autumn 2019

1. Important dates

1. Topic for home examination paper is to be submitted directly to prof. Bailliet by 4 November at 13:00.
2. Home examination paper is to be submitted 2 December at 13:00.

Papers handed in after the deadline will not be considered.

2. Formal requirements

The paper must be typed on a computer and comply with the following requirements:

- a) Font: Times New Roman, font size 12 and a line spacing of 1.5.
- b) Word count:

The length of the final essay should not exceed 6000 words.

Footnotes should be included in the word count of the main text. Not included in this count: the front page (with name and title etc.), summary, table of contents and references (bibliography). Text exceeding the word limit will not be read.

- c) Template: Students are required to use the template which can be found here: <http://www.jus.uio.no/english/studies/student-services/juriteket/templates/index.html>
 - Help? On the same webpage you will find the User Guide for Microsoft Word when writing the term paper. If you still have problems with using the template after reading the user guide, please contact Juriteket, (3rd floor, Domus Nova); the Law faculty's IT-service for students (information on web page above).

3. Paper structure

Technically the paper should be as good as possible: It should be well organized in sections and subsections, each with respective headings, and it should contain footnotes and a bibliography.

The paper should follow the following recommended structure:

- Table of contents
- Introduction:

The introduction is to be placed in the beginning of the paper and should contain the following.

 - Interpretation of essay question and formulation of research question, reasons you would give for formulating this/these question/s including a short explanation of the relevant background or context;

- Clarification of terms (or definitions) if necessary
- Presentation of the structure of the text (an overview of the chapters).
- Methodology (optional):
 - If relevant, you may include a brief section focusing on methodological issues that the research question raises and how you address these issues,
 - Including a description of the main sources that you will use in your assignment (e.g., an overview over applicable legal standards, procedures and sources).
- Sections containing main text (please adapt to your thesis)
 - Organize your main text along several well-defined sections. This is where you develop the arguments and discuss the topic.
- Conclusion
- Annex: List of references (bibliography):
 - The use of footnotes and references in the bibliography should be consistent. Please see the UiO Library resources on how to write and cite: <http://www.uio.no/english/writing-publishing/>

6. Rules about cheating and plagiarism

When you take facts, thoughts, ideas, viewpoints and short or long quotations from others and use them in your own work, the sources you have used must be clearly stated. In other words you must not give the impression that others' thoughts, ideas, viewpoints and results are your own if they are not.

For example, using word-for-word or even paraphrasing the language of a UN Report without attributing the source of that language is plagiarism. Using another's idea without attributing the idea to the person who conceived it is also plagiarism.

Avoid quoting long excerpts and articles; short citations are preferred, and instead provide an evaluation of the literature that is necessary to defend your points of view.

Be sure that you are familiar with the use of sources and the rules for citing/quoting from others' work when writing assignments and theses.

<http://www.uio.no/english/studies/admin/examinations/cheating>

UiO uses a plagiarism checking tool as one of several instruments for detecting suspicion of cheating and attempted cheating.
