

Notification regarding “Exam tips video no.1- writing legal exams”

This course has open book exam:

It is therefore very important that you read carefully the information about the “4 hour written open book digital school examination”. You will find information about what examination support material you can bring, the use of sources and rules for citing, example of highlighting in a text.

This means however that there is NOT a special list with support materials in this course, and special rules for how to make “references” in the support materials (referring to “Exam tips video no.1- writing legal exams”) All the other information in the video -tips lectures is however general and relevant for writing legal exams.