

KRIM2953

Exam paper

Whether pertaining to sexual violence in otherwise peaceful societies or to conflict-related sexual violence, a critical emphasis in this course and in the assigned literature has been the prioritization of legal strategies and criminal justice in addressing sexual assault. What are benefits of using law to combat sexual violence? What are possible pitfalls? Define the thematic scope of your assignment, and select and make use of relevant course literature to discuss these questions.

Note that the exam aims to test and assess your understanding of relevant readings from the course literature, the connections between them, and your ability to reflect upon and discuss central concepts and topics addressed in the course.