

Final home exam, spring 2020

KRIM2960 – Green Criminology

Disclosure of exam assignment: May 18 at 1:00 PM

Submission deadline: May 21 at 1:00 PM

Use relevant contributions on your reading list to answer one of the following questions:

1. Find in the syllabus three examples of environmental crimes and compare them to three examples of environmental harms. After describing the examples and explaining why they exemplify instances of environmental crime or environmental harm, discuss if and how they differ in their causes and consequences and what makes some be defined as harm rather than crime.

Or

2. Compare the issue of illegal wildlife trade in Colombia and Norway. Include in your analysis: motives, methods, law enforcement reactions and consequences for the victims.

The question can be answered in English, Norwegian, Danish or Swedish.

Size: Maximum 2000 words (roughly 5 pages). Front page, contents page (optional) and bibliography are not included. If footnotes are used in the text (at the bottom of each page), they are included in the 2000 word limit. Papers that exceed the 2000 word limit will be disallowed.

Cheating: Any exam at the University of Oslo is being checked for both correct word count and incidents of cheating. Text recognition software will be used to find cases of plagiarism. Failure to cite sources or highlight quotes in any assignments that are handed in is considered cheating. You must cite the source if you obtain data, reasoning and arguments from the literature, syllabus, lecture notes, web pages, other students' papers or your own previously submitted papers. Short or long pieces of text quoted verbatim from other sources must be italicised so that it is obvious that it is a quote.

Submit your exam: The essays shall be handed in electronically in Inspira. Exams at the University of Oslo are anonymous. Instead of your name, write your candidate number found in StudentWeb.
