KRIM4956 – International Criminal Justice and Mass Violence

Disclosure of exam assignment: May 14 at 1:00 PM

Submission deadline: May 21 at 1:00 PM

Choose either A or B:

- A. To what degree is international criminal justice universal justice? Present and discuss arguments for and against international criminal justice as universal justice. Address the strengths and the weaknesses of the arguments you discuss.
- B. Choose at least two Transitional Justice mechanisms. Formulate a precise research question, and discuss arguments for and against the use of your selected transitional justice mechanisms in response to mass violence.

The question can be answered in English, Norwegian, Danish or Swedish.

Size: Maximum 4000 words (roughly 10 pages). Front page, contents page (optional) and bibliography are not included. If footnotes are used in the text (at the bottom of each page), they are included in the 4000 word limit. Papers that exceed the 4000 word limit will be disallowed.

Cheating: Any exam at the University of Oslo is being checked for both correct word count and incidents of cheating. Text recognition software will be used to find cases of plagiarism. Failure to cite sources or highlight quotes in any assignments that are handed in is considered cheating. You must cite the source if you obtain data, reasoning and arguments from the literature, syllabus, lecture notes, web pages, other students' papers or your own previously submitted papers. Short or long pieces of text quoted verbatim from other sources must be italicised so that it is obvious that it is a quote.

Submit your exam: The essays shall be handed in electronically in Inpera. Exams at the University of Oslo are anonymous. Do not write your name.
