RSOS4953 – Legal Anthropology

Disclosure of exam assignment: November 11 at 1:00 PM

Submission deadline: November 15 at 1:00 PM

Home exam:

The overall topic of the essay is the relationship between economy, culture and rights in legal anthropology with focus on the dynamics of legal pluralism. Draw on the syllabus to describe and discuss how economic context shapes the relationship between different regulatory structures, particularly the ways in which norms are generated at the level of state-law and within a group or community.

Information

The question can be answered in English, Norwegian, Danish or Swedish.

Size: Maximum 3600 words (roughly 9 pages). Front page, contents page (optional) and bibliography are not included. If footnotes are used in the text (at the bottom of each page), they are included in the 3600 word limit. Papers that exceed the 3600 word limit will be disallowed.

Cheating: Any exam at the University of Oslo is being checked for both correct word count and incidents of cheating. Text recognition software will be used to find cases of plagiarism. Failure to cite sources or highlight quotes in any assignments that are handed in is considered cheating. You must cite the source if you obtain data, reasoning and arguments from the literature, syllabus, lecture notes, web pages, other students' papers or your own previously submitted papers. Short or long pieces of text quoted verbatim from other sources must be italicised so that it is obvious that it is a quote.

Submit your exam: The essays shall be handed in electronically in Inpera. Exams at the University of Oslo are anonymous. Instead of your name, write your candidate number found in StudentWeb.
