

JUR9021 – Internationalization, Transnational Law and Comparison Spring 2022

Date/Time: Tuesday 3 May and Wednesday 4 May 2022, 9am – 4.30pm

| Location: 3111 DJ | Topic | Lecturers |
|--------------------------|---|---------------------------------------|
| Day 1 (3 May) | Internationalisation | Lecturers |
| 9:00-9:30 | Introduction to the course: The supra-national dimension of law: No PhD thesis is an island | Prof. Christina Voigt |
| 9:30-11:00 | General introduction to public international law and its practice | Prof. Gentian Zyberi |
| 11:15-12:15 | Examples of inter- and transnational law | Prof. Inger Johanne Sand |
| Lunch | | |
| 13:00-14:30 | Ph.d. candidates discussion: Is international law relevant to my thesis? Which legal questions arise? Which methodological challenges do/did I encounter? | Prof. Christina Voigt |
| 14:45-15:15 | A Phd perspective: Researching international law | Rosa Manzo, PhD. |
| 15:15-15:45 | Researching International Courts (and their impact on national jurisdictions) | Prof. Geir Ulfstein (per zoom) |
| 16:00-16:30 | Discussion | |
| Day 2 (4 May) | Transnational Law and Comparative Law | |
| 09:00-09:45 | Comparative Public Law: Theory & Method | Prof. Malcolm Langford and |
| 10:00-10:45 | Transnational Law: Introduction, examples, current issues and practice | Prof. Tobias Mahler |
| 11:00-12:00 | Interactive discussion: Which comparative or transnational perspectives could be relevant for your thesis? | |
| Lunch | | |
| 13:00-13:45 | Globalization and crimmigration law | Prof. Katja Franko |
| 14:00-14:45 | Comparative Private Law: Lessons | Prof. Giuditta Cordero-Moss |
| 15:00-16:00 | Discussion of possible essay topics | Prof. Christina Voigt |

