2 stars and a wish

- ❖ I really enjoyed your choice of the article "Five provocations for Ethical HCI research" as the subject for Task 9 and your ability to summarize that article.
- ❖ Likewise I found the question " [...] how would one be sure that the person reviewing the work is objective and impartial?" concerning the same article insightful and interesting.
- ✓ The task 7 is done quite well as a summary of the content in the article "On the Subject of objects [...]". Having seen your analytical abilities throughout all the tasks I would wish for a little more analysis of the connection and variation of the four different approaches.
