

The general impression of your input for the course evaluation is that we should

- keep using diagrams/drawings to make the ideas clearer.
- provide more examples when a new definition is given.
- lower the pace a little bit (if possible, considering the curriculum plan).
- continue giving explanations in the same way as it is currently done.
- provide an overview of precisely what occurred in a proof, the key points.