Seminar 4:

Each group of students is assigned one of the axioms (U, P, D, I, transitivity of R, completeness of R).

The task is to present to the others: a social welfare function that satisfies all other axioms except the one assigned.