General guidelines for home exams:

Your pdf-file should:

- Be typewritten
- Include page numbers
- Use a font size and a line spacing to make your text easily readable
- Include a front page with:
 - The total number of words
 - Course code and course title
 - Assignment chosen (number and assignment text)
 - Semester and year
 - Candidate number (not your name) on the top right corner. You you're your candidate number in StudentWeb.

Upload your answer as a pdf-file to Inspira within the deadline. Information about submission of home exams in Inspira may be found under the heading Exam Resources on the semester page for the course: <https://www.uio.no/studier/emner/sv/sai/ANTH4010/h19/index.html>

The home exam paper must list all sources. More on correct use of sources and citations
See also "Practical advice for academic writing" under Exam resources on the semester page:
<https://www.uio.no/studier/emner/sv/sai/ANTH4010/h19/index.html>

Exam papers beyond the word count may be rejected at submission or returned without evaluation. Any paper may be controlled for word count and possible plagiarism or cheating. Papers that are not in concordance with the guide lines may be regarded as cheating, see "Routines for handling suspicion of cheating and attempted cheating at the University of Oslo"

Good luck!
