

Teaching plan - STV 4348 Spring 2010

Tuesday 09.03 18.15-20	Prof. Olle Törnquist	Why learn from 'the Scandinavian model'?	Trägårdh (1997); Collier (1999); Österud (2005); Intro in West European Politics special issue
Thursday 11.03 12.15-14	Prof. Bernt Hagtvet	Why do most parties reflect social and economic cleavages?	Rokkan (1967); Rokkan (1970). Hagtvet&Rudeng (1984)
Tuesday 16.03 18.15-20	Prof. Olle Törnquist	How did social democracy become so strong? (And what is its relation to civil society?)	Rothstein (2004); Berman (1998; 2006); Esping-Andersen (1988); Trägårdh (ed) (2007)
Thursday 18.03 12.15-14	Prof. Knut Kjeldstadli	How did popular movements get strong and contribute to 'national democracy' (and can it be reinvented re immigration)?	Kjeldstadli (2007) and (2009), Berman (1998; 2006); Esping-Andersen (1988); Tranvik & Selle (2005)
Tuesday 23.03 18.15-20h	Prof. Kalle Moene	How could social democracy and economic growth be combined, and is it still viable?	Esping-Andersen (1988), Moene & Walleerstain (2006)
Thursday 25.03 12.15-14h	Prof. Frederik Engelstad	What power relations fostered and sustain the welfare state?	Esping-Andersen (1988), Halvorsen & Stjernø (2008), (Engelstad 2004, Gulbrandsen & Engelstad 2005, Engelstad 2009)
Tuesday 06.04 18.15-20h	Prof. Larry Rose	How could democracy, decentralisation and universal welfare be combined?	Rose, L. (2004) & Sellers, J.M & Lidström, A. (2007)
Thursday 08.04 12.15-14	Professors Bernt Hagtvet and Trond Nordby	Beyond liberal democracy? (Interest based and citizen rights based representation)	Nordby (2004), Tranvik&Selle (2005) (plus handout)
Tuesday 13.04 18.15-20	Prof. Øyvind Østerud	Is popular sovereignty undermined?	Thematic issue of West European Politics on Norway (2005)
Thursday 15.04 12.15-13.45	Prof. Øystein Gullvåg Holter	How come women have advanced their positions and entered into politics?	Skjeie and Siim (2000), Raam, Holter et.al. (2009 a), (2009b)
13.45-14	Professor OlleTörnquist	Lessons for today?	